Middlesex University teaches 40,000 students on Middlesex courses at our campuses in London, Dubai, Malta and Mauritius, as well as with prestigious partners across the world. We have invested £200 million developing one of London’s biggest and most impressive campuses here at Hendon.

Getting to Hendon Campus

Middlesex University is well served by public transport. There are a number of ways to travel to Hendon Campus.

Accessibility
Hendon Central Underground station and Middlesex University Hendon campus are both fully accessible. We advise that you arrive via the main entrance. Steps, pathways and building entrances are displayed on the campus map. Alternative routes and entrances are clearly signposted on site.

Underground
Hendon Central station (Northern Line, Edgware branch) is only 30 minutes away from Central London. The walk from the station to Hendon Campus takes approximately 10 minutes. Turn right out of the station, walk up the road to the main junction and then turn right onto The Burroughs. As you approach the campus, the Hendon Town Hall and Public library are located on the left. Cross the road here and continue past the fire station and you will shortly arrive at the main entrance.

Rail
Fast and frequent rail services run via Hendon rail station to central London and destinations such as Luton and Gatwick airports and Bedford. Catch the 183 bus from Station Road directly to the main entrance.

Bus
Buses 143, 183 and 326 provide a direct service from the main entrance to Archway, Golders Green and Barnet. These services also provide links to Brent Cross Shopping Centre, Hendon Central Underground and Hendon rail stations.

By car
From the North: Leave the M1 at junction 2 for the A1 south. Turn right at the 2nd set of traffic lights onto the A504 (Finchley Lane). Continue through the next set of traffic lights.

From the south: Take the A1 at Hendy’s Corner. Turn left at the 1st set of traffic lights onto the A504 (Finchley Lane). Continue through the next set of traffic lights.

Parking is provided for staff and pre-arranged visitors only.
