

Care Leavers and Estranged Students

The following information gives care leavers and estranged students an overview of the financial and practical support available while studying at Middlesex University. Middlesex offers dedicated support services to help you manage your studies and deal with any problems you might encounter, be they of a personal, financial or practical nature.

NOTE: If you're not sure if you qualify as a 'care leaver' contact the Student Welfare Advice Service (SWAT) who will be able to advise you.

I am a 'care leaver' and will be starting my course in 2023. Is there any financial support I can get from my Local Authority?'

As a 'care leaver' entering higher education you will be entitled to a Bursary of at least £2,000 during your course from your Local Authority, some Local Authorities also provide additional funds for accommodation costs. The bursary may be paid in instalments or in a lump sum; this will depend on your Local Authority. Speak to your Personal Advisor or Social Worker to find out all the funding available and how it will be paid.

Are there any other sources of funding available?

Yes. There is a support package available to all students to cover the cost of studying at University which we will discuss later in more detail in this leaflet.

How much tuition fee will I have to pay?

The fees charged are £9,250 per year; however you are not expected to pay this amount up-front as there is a tuition fee loan available to cover the full cost. Eligible students can apply for a non-income-assessed fee loan from the Student Loan Company. The amount you borrow is repayable when you have completed your course and you are earning over £25,000 per year (more on that later).

So how do I apply for the fee loan?

You apply on line from Student Finance England (SFE) at www.gov.uk/student-finance

How is it paid?

When your attendance is confirmed on the course, the fee loan is paid directly to the University by the Student Loan Company.

What about living costs?

In addition to the fee loan, there are maintenance loans available to some students, including additional allowances for particular circumstances. The Maintenance Loan is for your day-to-day living costs including rent, course costs and travel for example. The first part of it isn't based on your household income, but you can apply for more that is. There are different rates of Maintenance Loans based on your individual circumstances:

- For those not eligible for Welfare Benefits
- Students eligible for Welfare Benefits

How much Maintenance Loan will I receive?

For independent students who are not eligible for Welfare Benefits the following amounts of Maintenance Loans are available:

2023-24	Main Rate 100%
Studying in London:	£13,022

Note: If your Household income is below £25,000 you will receive the maximum Maintenance Loan shown above. A proportional payment will then be made to students within a certain household income.

I am in receipt of Welfare Benefits. How much will I receive?

Some students will maintain their eligibility for Welfare Benefits whilst studying on a full-time course, although this will only apply a very small group of students. Students eligible for means-tested benefits can access a maintenance loan of up to £14,202. The £14,202 is inclusive of the £4,221 special support element. This special support element will not be used as income in your benefit calculation. If you think this may apply to you, seek advice from the Student Welfare Advice Team.

Is the Maintenance Loan paid in one lump sum?

No. It is paid in three instalments at the beginning of each term directly into your bank account.

How do I pay back my Fee Loan and Maintenance Loan?

You will not start repaying your loan until you have finished your course and your income is over £25,000 a year.

You'll have deductions made from your salary through the tax system. For example if you earn £28,000, your employer will deduct 9% of £3,000 which amounts to £22.00 per month. If you earn £33,000 you will pay 9% on £8,000 which amounts to £60.00 per month.

Will these loans attract interest?

Yes, interest on your loan will be based on inflation (RPI-all items index) Note: The loan debt will be written off after 40 years.

Is there any other support available from the University?
