

MSc Health Psychology Scholarship

Two £2,550 scholarships, funded by friends and alumni of Middlesex University are available to students applying for entry to MSc Health Psychology as a full-time student for September 2011. The scholarships will be awarded to applicants who demonstrate exemplary academic and/or professional achievement or potential. Applications are welcome from students who have been offered (conditional or unconditional) and accepted a place on the MSc Health Psychology programme. Students who receive a scholarship from another organization cannot apply. Middlesex University alumni who apply are also eligible for the Alumni Bursary (10% discount) but they cannot also hold the Academic Alumni Scholarship (20% discount). Scholarships are in the form of a discount in tuition fees (paid in the first year of study).

The deadline for applications is 26th August 2011. We will notify successful candidates by 8th September 2011.
